

Sunday afternoon

Dear Pella I send the hood ~~it~~ looks rather large for Lissy, but if too large - Miss Gingham likes it so well she will take it & give materials for another. I do not think the pulp is quite long enough, but it was every scrap of fur left.
You must put on the ribbon. When I cut the hood I expected to make one ~~for~~ for little Tom, & I knew there would not be silk enough if Lissy was lined throughout, I therefore bought a piece of Cambick for the crown, I was very after we concluded not to make one for Tom, for the silk that is left is of not much use.

It is no great thing tho' for the Cambick was only 3 cents. Miss Gingham likes the hood so well that I am going to make her some. The hood Maria left for the sewing-circle work - I did not take it into the meeting, knowing it could not be done so well. Therefore they will not be benefited with the whole of the money.

Miss G. charges 50 cents for ^{making} a hood. I shall only charge 40. When you send this charge will you ask Maria to send with it 25 cents for an annual subscription. Deborah our meeting was glorious as to every thing but members.
I expect it makes much talk in haste yours was
